Welcome to today's visitors Orient, who have had a magnificent run in the FA Cup this season.

Next Saturday, while we are battling it out for League points in our top of the table clash against Spurs at White Hart Lane they will also be in London just one game away from Wembley as they take on Arsenal in their semi-final.

They have been an excellent advert for the Second Division in the Cup and they beat Middlesbrough after a replay — and Boro were, of course, the side that knocked out the Wanderers.

Our Easter programme was satisfactory from the point of view of picking up points. We earned two with a 2-1 defeat of Blackpool in a typically hard-fought derby game at Burnden Park.

And on Monday we went to Notts. County where, after going a goal behind in only the second minute we fought back to earn a point.

We didn't play particularly well in the first half and it was not until after the interval that we produced any sort of showing.

I must pay tribute to our goalkeeper Jim McDonagh for the way he kept us in the game with a series of fine saves. And looking back to the Blackpool game, after they had pulled a goal back through a penalty, McDonagh distinguished himself with an excellent save from Jeff Chandler.

Orient have a number of good players and I look forward to an interesting encounter today. Our promotion hopes have never been brighter and a good result will take us that much nearer to our goal — a place in the First Division next season.

Today's Visitors

Orient fans have only seven more days to wait before they will enjoy the greatest moment in the club's 97 year history — their first-ever appearance in the semi-finals of the FA Cup.

To add spice to the occasion, Orient will be facing their famous neighbours Arsenal in what must surely be London's Match of the Season at Stamford Bridge.

The incredible paradox for Orient this season — or, at least, during the latter part of it — is that, while they were knocking three famous First Division clubs out of the FA Cup, they failed to win even one single Second Division match between Christmas and Easter!

They went in to Easter with a run of nine winless League games behind them and, consequently, they are now in danger of relegation to the Third Division.

Yet next Saturday, they will be fighting it out for a place at Wembley!

That's the magic of English football, of course. It is so unpredictable. No one gave Orient a chance after they had been held 1-1 at home by Norwich in the third round of the FA Cup. Yet they won the replay 1-0 at Carrow Road and then proceeded to knock out Blackburn Rovers, one of the leading Second Division sides, by 3-1 at the next stage.

Their finest performance of all came in the fifth round against Chelsea. After a goalless draw at Brisbane Road, Orient won 2-1 at Stamford Bridge. So they will take happy memories back with them to that ground when they meet Arsenal next week.

In the sixth round Orient drew 0-0 at Middlesbrough and then finished off their Third First Division rivals by 2-1 in their home replay.

One of the big successes of Orient's run has been striker Peter Kitchen who has scored in every round. Orient paid Doncaster £45,000 for Kitchen last summer and he is now their leading scorer, going into the Easter games with 24 goals to his credit, and notching a hat-trick on Monday.

Orient don't often have that kind of money to spend on players, of course, and the Kitchen fee was possible from the proceeds of the £100,000 sale of Laurie Cunningham to West Bromwich last season.

Kitchen's transfer was completed by former manager George Petchey who left after the club had made a poor start to the season. He has been succeeded by Jimmy Bloomfield who was previously in charge at Brisbane Road prior to his six-year spell at Leicester City.

Mr Bloomfield has made few changes in the team, however. That solid and reliable goalkeeper John Jackson still forms their last line of defence, in front of a back four of Bobby Fisher, Phil Hoadley, Glenn Roeder and Bill Roffey.

Tony Grealish, the Republic of Ireland international midfielder player, is hoping Orient's Cup run will help him regain his place in the Irish team. He is certainly playing well enough to deserve another chance.

David Payne, a former full back, sometimes plays in midfield with Grealish and, in a recent tendency to play 4-4-2, Orient have included youngsters Kevin Godfrey and Nigel Gray in this department.

Orient also have the experience of Alan Glover and Peter Bennett to call upon in the middle of the field.

Joe Mayo usually partners Kitchen as the spearhead of the attack but they also have the much-travelled Derek Clarke available here.

Apart from one solitary season (1962-3) when they aspired briefly to First Division status, Orient have never met their more famous rivals on equal terms. But next Saturday they will certainly be facing Arsenal very much as equals.

If Orient can repeat their splendid performance when defeating Chelsea at Stamford Bridge, there is no reason at all why they should not now dispose of Arsenal and reach the FA Cup final for the first time.

The tragedy for Orient is that their finest hour should be somewhat marred by the niggling worry of relegation.

Wanderers Promotions

A Message to the Fans!

Over the past three months, we have been running a new lottery where there is a chance to win a £1,000 first prize. There are also two and a half thousand other prizes ranging from 50p to £500 which can be won instantly on purchasing a ticket.

Although we have many sales outlets, the main selling points are newsagents throughout the Bolton area.

All tickets purchased have a chance of winning a thousand pounds as they are returnable on completion of your name and address, back to the selling point where the ticket was obtained.

The draw for the thousand pounds which takes place every other Wednesday, has been attracting a lot of attention as we have been making it at factories and clubs around the town.

The players have been in attendance at these occasions and have signed autographs and walked round some of the factories mainly in the lunch hour.

Very soon, we will be changing over to the "Rub off" ticket as opposed to the "Tear off" ticket we sell now.

We have been trying to obtain the "Rub off" for some time and know that it will be an even greater success than our present ticket.

So don't forget that most newsagents act as vendors for Bolton Wanderers and proceeds from the Wanderers' Lottery go to making a better stadium for you "Super White" fans.
